- Lateral Thigh Trainer
- This is a step machine which helps work the legs
- Looking to build on those legs and arms...Here's your machine
- It's in a used condition and mechanically still works very well
- The display function is in good working order (As Can Be Seen From The Picture)
- Can track your time, strides and calories burned with this machine
- Has detachable straps to exercise your arms and aid with your workout
- At the bottom (As seen in the picture) you can change the gear to increase or decrease the workout...All down to you
- Set up in front off TV, and away you go, it's ready to be used. No complications, no hassle, just you working out
- £14
