If you are generally interested please

Selling as I don't have the time for them, they need someone who is going to train them up.

The only thing they have learnt is how to laugh they are 18 months old

One male one female

I bought off a friend of a friend in January they was covered over with no toys at all. Since I have bought them lots, they come out every day. They are used to children.

They go in fine for me but obviously they may be wary of you.

Have not attempted handling them but I have I try to hand feed which they do not like.

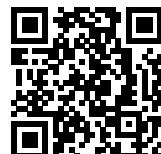

Comes with cage and toys £150 .

I'm in Hertfordshire sg12
