My name is Kurtis Swan and I am currently a Personal Trainer and Gym Instructor in Essex, England. I have qualifications in

- â€¢ Circuit training,
- â€¢ Gym-based boxing,
- â€¢ Studio Cycling,
- â€¢ Sports Nutrition,
- â€¢ As well as achieving a grade in Physical Education at both A-Level and GCSE.

I would be more than capable in any goals that your employees wish to achieve, whether they are health or skill based fitness components. These qualifications, in addition to my knowledge, have meant that I have assisted clients in

- â€¢ sports specific targets,
- â€¢ gaining an enhanced and more confident physical profile,
- â€¢ promoting a positive psychological outlook
- â€¢ helping teams become successful.

The prices that charge are also extremely reasonable. For a block of 10 x 1 hour sessions I only charge £280. This is compared to most gyms which charge £35-40 per hour session plus a monthly contract. I also offer sessions in groups, as well as 1:1 and so the price per client is even less.

As my time as a fitness professional I have spent my time in situations where participants have been struggling with mental health issues such as anxiety, depression, and youth mental health. I am a dedicated and enthusiastic professional who has proven to be a valuable asset to my clients by helping them achieve their goals through various activities. I have a proven track record in helping clients with psychological issues to pay for their sessions. I have also achieved a Certificate in Personal Training and currently teach a children's class, where they are all under the age of 5 years old.

I myself have dealt with sports specific training and my training routines have meant I have achieved an Essex County silver medal over 5 miles and run a 1 hour 18 minutes half-marathon in 2013 at an average of 6 minutes per mile. I am also ranked within the top 50 within the country over 5 miles and 10.
