For sale

We have a 20 month old cocker spaniel where due to unforeseen circumstances we are having to rehome. He is a blue roan pedigree without papers and a very clever and excitable boy.

He he has been neutered, great with kids, house trained, can be left, cage trained, will come to recall and has basic commands. Ideally we would love him to go to a home where he has a lot of one on one attention as he still gets very excitable and needs some additional training.

It is with a lot of sadness that he has to go but we really want the life for him he deserves.

Please contact me with any other questions, open to offers and would like as much information about his potential new family as possible.

Thank
