Are you a model looking to update your portfolio with new material, do you have new material ideas or looking for new creative inspiration. Simon Everett Photography Kent is a leading professional photographer with a creative design and editing aspect, I will go through your ideas for your next creative portrait shoot whether studio or location work.

Are you a beginner to the modelling industry and looking at creating your first portfolio. I provide both portrait shoots at locations and with a studio environment available at very flexible times, I also can provide A4 size portfolios with A4 prints in clear sleeves that you can start to showcase your work with a very fast turn around speed.

For more details on shoot dates and times to fine tune your model portraits you can contact me on the link provided for more.
