Blue and gold macaws currently available cocks and hens amazing parrots unbelievably tame

All birds are sexed. They come with DNA test, Birth Certificate and are well raised and socialised.

We work with you before and after your purchase to insure the health and happiness of the bird.

All of our birds are treated equally and with the upmost respect and care. We believe that the way you raise your young determines the way they will behave in the future. We take pride in what we do, ensuring the quality of parrots we breed and raise are always up to expectation.

You are not just buying a parrot, you are buying a friend for life!

The most important stage in a parrots life is the first ten to twelve weeks, in this time we mould the parrots and work closely with them to positively influence their attitude, character and personality.

Our parrots are hand reared in a happy family orientated environment. They are the collection of a man and a woman who frequently travel. We like to raise quality parrots and after 10 weeks they are sent to their new homes to be born.

I have provided pictures of recent blue and gold macaws I have sold in the last 6 months to happy homes as well as photos of the breeding pair. If you would like picture of the baby birds currently for sale, please contact me.
