Three renowned global adventurers will be coming to Welwyn Garden City to share their stories of extraordinary exploration on Tuesday 1st May.

Have you ever wondered what it's like to row across the Atlantic? Do you want to hear from a seasoned mountaineer and extreme triathlete? Adventure Travel Tales is the event for you.

Charlie Walker, who has cycled 43,000 miles, completed a 5,200 mile triathlon and walked 1,000 miles across the Gobi desert, will be speaking at the event alongside mountaineer Miles Harrison and record-breaking rower Elin Haf Davies.

Tickets cost £10 and can be bought online here: <https://ti.to/child-org/adventure-travel-tales>. More details can be found on the Facebook event page: <https://www.facebook.com/events/354892651580973/>.

Listen Up run one-off talks from fascinating people across the UK - giving you access to new perspectives, with all profits going to international children's charity Child.
