Here's a little bit about me:

-I am 47 years old. I have been playing tennis continuously since I was 9. I still play now about 4 times a week and absolutely love this game.

I also have played competitively for many years.

My proudest achievements:

-At 17 years old, had a win against the 754th ATP world ranked professional player Jose Carranza.

-Also at 17 years old in the same tournament, I had 3 set points versus the 107th ATP world ranked professional player Stephane Bonneau.

-ranked #2 in men's open division in Texas, usa in 2012

My family and I have moved to United Kingdom approximately 2 years ago.

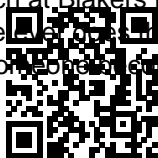

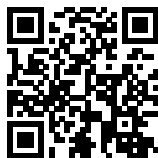

I was born in Quebec, Canada and then moved to USA at 17 years old to go and play college tennis.

Lived in Houston, Texas for about 25 years and just recently moved to Brighton a couple of years ago.

-I have previously taught tennis in Houston, Texas for approximately 15 years and have taught many kids from beginners to college tennis.

-I have also had the experience of working with 185th ATP world tennis player Justin Bower who reached the 2nd round of Wimbledon in 2000 versus Gustavo Kuerten.

I would like to teach at Blakers Park since it does not seem that anyone ever comes to ask for a court. I would like to help someone who has never played and give them the opportunity to learn and enjoy the game.
