Alexander Vallincourt hires on as a cabin boy on a ship which becomes entrapped in an ice flow near the North Pole, forcing the crew to abandon ship. Vallincourt becomes lost and nearly succumbs to the elements. Rescued by an Inuit tribe Vallincourt is given water from a mystical pool. He is told that because of the water he will live forever. The government is tipped off about Vallincourt's immortal existence. A group of rogue agents go on the hunt for him, stopping at nothing to learn his secret to immortality for themselves.
